3 Enter your shopping password.

When creating your AOL Quick Checkout password:

- Make it at least 8 characters long.
- Include letters and numbers, but not punctuation marks.
- Do not use your regular AOL password.
- Do not use words that appear in the dictionary.

Whenever you make a purchase using AOL Quick Checkout, you'll enter your AOL Quick Checkout password. This extra security helps ensure that no one else can make purchases using your information.

Tip

Create a password that's easy for you to remember, but hard for others to guess. For example, use a combination of your mother's name, or maybe the place where you work, and your date of birth. Ex. carol1980

The screenshot shows the AOL Quick Checkout interface. At the top, there are tabs for "Shipping Address" and "Credit Cards". Handwritten numbers "1502" and "1503" are above the "Credit Cards" tab. Below the tabs, a text box instructs the user to select a credit card and click "Use This Credit Card" to modify an existing one, or click "Edit This Credit Card" to add a new one. Below this, a list of credit cards is shown, with "American Express YTM" selected. Handwritten number "1501" is next to it. Below the list, a text box instructs the user to click "Add This Credit Card" to complete the information. Below this, a form for adding a new credit card is shown. Handwritten number "1504" is next to the form. The form fields include: Card Type (Visa), Card Number, Expiration Date (12 / 12), First Name and Middle Name, Last Name, Address Line 1, Address Line 2 (optional), Address Line 3 (optional), City, State (CA - California), Zip Code, Country (United States), Daytime Phone (optional), and Evening Phone (optional). At the bottom, there are "Add This Card" and "Cancel" buttons. Handwritten number "1505" is next to the "Add This Card" button. A circled number "2" is next to the "Cancel" button. The bottom of the window shows the taskbar with "Document 3" open.
